You are Responsible for Repairs

As a homeowner, you are responsible for the plumbing and drainage lines inside your home, and you will have to arrange and pay for any necessary repairs. This illustration shows the location of the plumbing and drainage lines inside your home. Also shown are repairs that are commonly performed on these lines and how much licensed and insured plumbers would typically charge.

Many homeowners do not know that basic homeowners insurance typically only covers things like property damage to your home, but not damage due to normal wear and tear to your interior plumbing and drainage lines. With Interior Plumbing and Drainage System Coverage you're protected in the event of a covered breakdown.

Important Coverage Information: Eligibility: To be eligible, you must own the residential single structure or a unit within a structure. You are not eligible if your home is a recreational vehicle or otherwise intended to be moved; your property is used for commercial purposes; you know of any current problems with your interior plumbing and drainage lines before enrollment; or your entire interior plumbing and drainage line is shared with a 3rd party or covered by a homeowners' association or the like. In IA, properties with more than 4 dwelling units are not eligible. Benefit Details: Coverage provides, up to the applicable benefit limit, to repair or replace the interior plumbing and drainage lines that have experienced an operational failure, for which you have sole responsibility, that are damaged due to normal wear and tear, not accident or negligence. Not covered: Non-conforming drain lines; appliances, fittings or fixtures, vent stacks, pressure reducing valves, backflow prevention devices, fire suppression and other sprinkler systems, irrigation systems, distribution piping such as for radiators and heating systems, condensate drain lines for cooling systems, pumps, or grinders, frozen pipes and damage from accidents, negligence or otherwise caused by you, wildlife, others or unusual circumstances. Costs on covered repairs may exceed the benefit limit, in which case you pay the difference between the cost and the benefit limit. Additional exclusions apply. Disputes resolved by arbitration, without class action or jury trial, unless otherwise stated in your full Terms and Conditions. Making a Service Call: Your plan starts the day your enrollment is processed. There is an initial 30-day waiting period before you can make a service call, providing 11 months of coverage during the first year. Upon renewal/reactivation (if applicable), there is no waiting period. Cancellation: Cancel any time by calling HomeServe at 1-833-397-0296 or visiting www.homeserve.com. If you cancel within 30 days of your start date, you will get a full refund (less claims paid, where applicable). Cancellations after the first 30 days will result in a pro-rata refund (less claims paid, where applicable). Renewal: The plan is annual. Unless you cancel, your plan automatically renews annually at the then-current renewal price with your same payment terms.

See full Terms and Conditions with complete coverage and exclusion details prior to enrolling by calling 1-833-397-0296 or going to www.PlansforOmaha.com. HomeServe is an independent company, separate from your local utility or community. If you would prefer not to receive solicitations from HomeServe, please call 1-833-397-0296.

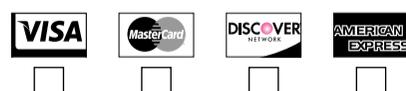

E-Z Pay: A paperless and stress-free way to pay for your coverage. Payments are automatically debited from the bank/checking account of your choice as your payment becomes due, at no additional cost.

CREDIT/DEBIT CARD

By signing below, I authorize HomeServe to charge my first and future payments, plus any applicable taxes, for Interior Plumbing and Drainage System Coverage to my credit/debit card at the frequency and amount specified in the Payment Schedule. I understand this optional coverage is based on an annual contract and will be automatically renewed annually on the same payment terms I selected at the then-current renewal price, plus any applicable taxes, unless I cancel. I can cancel the automatic payments and this contract any time at no additional cost, without obligation to make future plan payments, by calling 1-833-397-0296 or visiting www.homeserve.com.
